DELHI

A symbol of the country's rich past and thriving present, Delhi is a city where ancient and modern blend seamlessly together. It is a place that not only touches your pulse but even fastens it to a frenetic speed. Delhi showcases an ancient culture and a rapidly modernising country. Dotted with monuments there is much to discover here. The seat of many powerful empires in the past, its long history can be traced in its many carefully-preserved monuments, ancient forts and tombs. Even today, one can have a fascinating glimpse into the past in Old Delhi, with its labyrinth of narrow lanes, old havelis, and colourful bazaars. Rickshaws wind their way through this crowded, bustling capital of the Mughals, where life continues, much as it did hundreds of years ago. It is home to three World Heritage monuments-Qutub Minar, Red Fort and Humayun's Tomb that have survived many centuries, and give an idea of architectural wonders created by emperors in the past.

JAIPUR

Rajasthan's beautiful Pink City Jaipur, was the stronghold of a clan of rulers whose three hill forts and series of palaces in the city are important attractions. Known as the Pink City because of the colour of the stone used exclusively in the walled city, Jaipur's bazaars sell embroidered leather shoes, blue pottery, tie and dye scarves and other exotic wares. Founded in AD 1727 by Sawai Jaisingh II, Jaipur the capital of Rajasthan is popularly known as the Pink City with broad avenues and spacious gardens. The capital of Rajasthan, Jaipur is steeped in history and culture. Here the past comes alive in magnificent forts and palaces, blushed pink, where once lived the maharajas.

AGRA

Surrounded by the mighty Yamuna River, "Agra" does not have only the heart-stopping masterpiece of Mughal era "Taj Mahal" to boast of but its many other attractions, UNESCO World Heritage Sites and innumerable things to do will leave you mesmerized, from visiting Agra Red Fort, Diwan-i-Am, Diwan-i-Khas, Sheesh Mahal & Khas Mahal to shopping at Kinari Bazaar and relishing in the famous Mughlai cuisine. The flower of the Mughal empire-in-ascendancy, Agra, is also home to the immortal epitome of love, the Taj Mahal. Agra is a city where the perfect romantic allure can be found. The land to the Taj Mahal, the Symbol of Love and one of the Seven Wonders of the World, makes the air of Agra full of love and romance. While the Legacy of Mughal Empire just didn't give Taj Mahal to this romantic land but many other mesmerizing attractions worth exploring as well.
